

A house to hang your hat and your hopes.

We'll get you home.

Find the best home for your best self.

We all need our own space to just be; somewhere to hang our pictures and put our pot plants. Whether you're moving onwards, upwards or elsewhere, you're already busy living your life – we understand. Our property associates partner with you to take the 'complicated' out of buying your next home to create a seamless, stress-free experience.

Your PropertyDuo associate will help you find a balance between important lifestyle factors and the kind of property that represents a good investment, and marry your means with your wants and needs.

How we find the right home for you.

Educate Rely on our accurate and up-to-date data, property insights and risk analytics to help clarify your needs and make informed decisions about your next property move.

Search We cast our net far and wide to thoroughly search the market. Tapping into all of our networks enables us to spot and secure a home to suit your changing needs and budget.

Inspect Getting to all the open houses can be a stressful blur of logistics. We'll keep our professional eyes peeled at inspections, so you can have your Saturdays back.

Analyse Our experts analyse a number of factors, including past performance history to curate a tailored property shortlist based on your specific needs. Pre-auction due diligence also includes a review of building and pest inspection reports on your behalf.

Negotiate With your budget firmly in mind, our experts will bid at auction or negotiate a purchase on your behalf, putting you in prime position.

Post-purchase To save you more time, we conduct pre-settlement inspections on your behalf helping you move towards a smooth settlement process.

We go beyond the basics of property advisory.
